How Do I Define Success?

How might you define success in the future? Complete any of these sentences that appeal to you (no need to do them all):

As my life progresses, I will consider myself successful when I...

- have this job title: ________________________________________________________________
- own: _____________________________________________________________________________
- retire at age: ______ in: _____________________________________________________________ (location)
- use my talent in: _________________________________  to: ________________________________
- am in love with: _________________________________________________________________
- spend my time: ___________________________________________________________________
- volunteer to: _____________________________________________________________________
- receive an award for: ______________________________________________________________
- am asked for my autograph because I: ______________________________________________
- have pursued: _____________________________________________________________________
- do: _____________________________________________________________________________
- have: ____________________ dollars in the bank or in investments.

Fill in the blanks with your own ideas:

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Reflect on your answers above and consider how they might fit together into a successful life.

CCPD, Kalamazoo College, September 2014.