Welcome back to Kalamazoo College for the Winter 2016 Quarter! The Office of Student Involvement hopes it was a restful and fun-filled break for all students, with perhaps a little work, an internship, or some research experience on the side. While you were away, the Office of Student Involvement has been working on a couple of NEW things, Take a look! OSI has also been working hard all break to come up with new and fun-filled events that we are just eager for you to enjoy! There is something for everyone from Stress Free Zones to our new Kitchen Korner Series! We strongly encourage you to check them out! We promise you won’t regret it!
