1. What about K has turned out differently, so far, than you imagined?

2. How do you see your role in relationship to the content of your courses?

3. Do you feel you own your education? If so, how? If not, how might you claim greater ownership of it?

4. How do you define a learning community?
5. What is one thing you are willing to do to take a greater responsibility for the community of our classroom?

6. In one sentence, write what you gained from The Wizard of Oz that can enrich your educational journey:

7. And from Peter Pan?

8. And from Assassination Vacation?

9. What is one thing you have received from a person in this class that you will never forget?

10. What is one way in which you’ve changed/shifted/grown in the last five weeks?