THIS PEER REVIEW SHEET MUST COME IN ON FRIDAY ATTACHED TO THE AUTHOR’S PAPER!

First, read through the paper once without making any marks except to circle misspellings and incorrect punctuation. DO NOT make corrections. Then, respond to these questions. You have ½ hour.

1. Without rereading: What is the most memorable part of this paper?

2. Without rereading, what do you think is this paper’s central idea, the idea that brings all the parts together?

3. Which paragraphs in this essay do not have clear topic sentences? (Give page and paragraph numbers.)

4. What part of this paper confused you, because either the thinking or the expression wasn’t clear?

5. Is there any part of this paper where you felt you needed more detail to get the whole picture? Give page numbers and identify the problem area(s).

When you’ve finished, exchange peer-review forms with your partner and read each other’s comments. Ask questions to make sure you understand.
