Response #3: On Rebecca Walker's Black, White, and Jewish
Due: In class Monday, week 9
Length: 2-4 pp.

The subtitle of Walker’s book is “Autobiography of a Shifting Self.” In your paper, answer two questions: What does Walker mean by a “shifting self”? At the end of her story, has that self stopped shifting? Use evidence from the text to answer these questions. You don’t need to quote at length; sometimes you can just refer to particular incidents or chapters.

This paper does not require a formal introductory paragraph or a conclusion.
