Exam Week Stress Relief
Tips of the Month

Brought to you by the OSI interns

When all the work builds up at the end of the quarter, take the time to watch one of your favorite shows. Let something get your mind off of it all and start fresh again after. - Nichelle Abts

In the craziness of the end of the term, don’t forget to call your family, friends, and significant others at home. Talking to someone and letting out your stresses can be very cathartic! - Kari Paine

Get off campus and go on an adventure to take a little break from the stresses of school. - Sharon Kenney

Dia de los Muertos

LSO will present how different countries celebrate the day of the dead. There is going to be many shrines and you will have the opportunity to make sugar skulls. There also will be a circus act during this event brought to you by Cirque du K.

Monte Carlo is Coming!
Monte Carlo is just around the corner and SAC needs you to help plan it.
Monte Carlo will take place this winter quarter and involves a lot of planning to prepare. Get in on the ground floor of the planning now by attending a weekly SAC meeting. SAC meets on Wednesdays at 8 pm in Hicks 111 A&B. Stop by and join one of the planning committees. Help plan the decorations, the menus, the layout, and so much more! Monte Carlo is celebrating its 39th year and is one of the largest events that happens on K’s campus.
