Pete: What did you just say?

April: Pete.

Pete: What.

April: Excuse me?

Lisa: It's a bad idea, Daisy.

Daisy: If we watch this thing, we're gonna see you on video.

April: Of course she doesn't, right, Daisy?

Daisy: Of course she doesn't, right? Ask me the question. You want to ask me something, Daisy? I ask me the question. Ask me the question. Ask me the question. Ask me the question.

April: You know what I hear. I'm standing right here.

Daisy: Right, which of your O.C.D. about it is total.

Lisa: He isn't actually.

Daisy: Right.

April: Yes.

Pete: No, he's not.

Lisa: He isn't.

April: It's not true. It's not true. She can't just—

Pete: Pete: Like what?

Lisa: Unless she is.

Pete: I said unless you've got something to hide.

Frank Winters,
PETE: Which they haven't, ergo nothing happened.

Roy: Police, at which point the police would have swarmed

Pete: Exactly, right so something happened then she

Daisy: What are you talking about...

Roy: Had to war.

Daisy: Well, actually, she probably wouldn't ever

Roy: That, and if she did go to the hospital, like she would've

Daisy: Going to go to the hospital? There are all this stuff:

Roy: I mean, when you get checked.

Daisy: Yeah, I mean.

Roy: I mean.

April: So?

Roy: Look, I can settle this right now. Okay, Sarah, was Pete: No, it is not okay. It's not.

Roy: Dude. It's okay.

Pete: You know what?

Daisy: So, was it you, then?

Pete: Because we don't know you. This is my best

Daisy: Why?

Pete: Because he doesn't have to.

Daisy: He still hasn't answered my question.

That, that's not what he is.

Pete: Best of luck.
