Sixteenth Annual
FALL COLLOQUIUM ON TEACHING AND LEARNING
Tuesday, September 5, 2017
Hicks Center Banquet Room
KALAMAZOO COLLEGE

9:00    Patrik Hultberg and President Jorge G. Gonzalez
Welcome and Opening Remarks

9:15-9:35    Candace Bailey Combs, Kathryn Lightcap, Amy Newday, Robin Rank
Learning Commons
What can the Learning Commons do for you and your students?

9:35-9:55    Elizabeth Manwell
Classics
The Thomas Project: Assessing Student Research at Multiple Levels

10:00-10:15  Coffee Break and Conversations

10:15-10:35  Ryan Fong, Sarah Lindley, Chuck Stull
English, Art and Art History, Economics and Business
South Africa and Social Justice Pedagogy

10:35-10:55  Noriko Sugimori
East Asian Studies
Using Technology for Formative Assessment and Oral History in Japanese Language Classrooms

10:55-11:15  Alyce Brady
Computer Science
Addressing Inclusion and Growth Mindset in Computer Science

11:15-Noon Discussion
Lunch (12:00-1:00) in the Stone Room after the Colloquium
Advising Practicum (1:00-2:30) in Hicks Center Banquet Room

We are grateful for the continuing support of the President’s and Provost’s Offices